The Homesteader
Oscar Micheaux

The Homesteader is a semi-autobiographic novel about Jean Baptiste, an African-American homesteader in the Dakotas. He meets Agnes who he falls in love with, however as Agnes is presumed to be white, he is not allowed to marry her, so instead he marries the daughter of a black preacher, Orlean, which eventually, due to family issues, ends in a tragedy. Returning to his homestead, he finds Agnes again and discovers her upbringing and past, which brings the book to its conclusion. (Summary by Lynda Marie Neilson)

Read by volunteer readers. 70 Tracks. Total Duration: 17:12:34

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org.

Cover images: frame from "Cut Silhouette of Four Full Figures" (1830) by Auguste Edouart (1789- 1861) & drawing from the Gutenberg text. Copyright expired in U.S., Canada, EU. and all countries with author’s life +70 yrs laws. Cover design by TriciaG. This design is in the public domain.